

FROM THE VICAR OF COLN, HATHEROP & QUENINGTON

Dear friends

This is the my last month not only as a Vicar here in the South Cotswolds Team, but also as a licensed clergyman – I retire from full-time ministry at the end of this month. Liz and I will then move to Charlbury in Oxfordshire, where I shall be that most useful of creatures ... a retired vicar, able to help the hard-pressed clergy in neighbouring villages.

Liz and I have been very happy here, and are grateful for your friendship and support during our time in CHEQS. We shall keep in touch with you: I'm soon to start teaching Latin one day a week at Hatherop Castle school, and will always be glad of an invitation to a restorative cup of tea afterwards – just contact me on “john@pjohnp.me.uk”.

I came here after some very busy, and stressful, years in a larger parish – determined to read, think, pray .. and to visit parishioners .. more than had been possible in my previous job. To a large extent that has been fulfilled, though throughout my time here there have been clergy vacancies in the wider Team, and so more of my time than I anticipated has been spent helping in other village churches.

An unexpected bonus has been how appreciative many of you have been of my teaching ministry – we've some wonderfully intellectually-curious congregations here! The New Testament Greek reading group that I started is flourishing, and people have been very appreciative of my 'Lost in Translation' talks – a retirement project will be to turn them into a book. As a swansong I shall be leading three final sessions (a Bird's-Eye View of .. the Bible, Church History, and the Church of England) at 4.00 pm on Mondays this month – details on page 6.

Finally, do come to say good-bye at (or after) my final service: 11.00 am on Sunday 29th in Hatherop church. If you can't come to the service (a Harvest Celebration), then come afterwards at about 12 noon for drinks & nibbles and a few kind words.

AN INVITATION – ROSIE ROTHMAN

Rosie Rothman, who lived extremely happily with George in Eastleach for 23 years from 1983, died on 20th May, days short of 85, having fought a difficult cancer bravely for over 5 years. A Cremation Service, and later a Thanksgiving Service were held in Sussex, and on Wednesday 18th Sept a simple Burial of her Ashes Service, not much over 10 minutes will be held at St Andrews Church, Eastleach at 2.30, at the graveside, unless bad weather, followed by Tea at nearby Eastleach House, by kind arrangement with Mrs David (Stephanie) Richards. Those who knew Rosie would be most welcome at both events. It would greatly help Caterers if you would kindly let George know if you would like to attend the Tea, either by e-mail to georgerothman@waitrose.com or by phone to George at 01293 852 754, if possible by Tues 10th Sept.

CALLING ALL QUENINGTON RESIDENTS- YOUR VILLAGE HALL NEEDS YOU!

The duties are not onerous – we have a committee meeting every other month; hold a monthly coffee morning (attend when you can); and organise a couple of events annually to raise funds and bring people together. If you feel you would like to help, please contact Fran Huckle (01285 750788) or email queningtonvillagehall@gmail.com for more information. We look forward to hearing from you.

COLN CINEMA INVITES YOU TO A SHOWING OF 'Fisherman's Friends'

At Vicarage Cottage Barn, Coln St. Aldwyns On Friday 27th September 2019 at 7.30pm (doors open 7.00)

A fast-living, cynical London music executive (Danny Mays) heads to a remote Cornish village on a stag weekend where he's pranked by his boss (Noel Clarke) into trying to sign a group of shanty singing fishermen (led by James Purefoy). He becomes the ultimate 'fish out of water' as he struggles to gain the respect or enthusiasm of the unlikely boy band and their families (including Tuppence Middleton) who value friendship and community over fame and fortunes. We learn more about the community. Their music becomes a top ten hit.

Highly recommended 112 MINUTES

A BIRD'S-EYE VIEW

We all know a bit about the Bible, and about church history, and about how the Church of England works; but we don't always see the bigger picture .. how it all fits together, and why it is how it is.

John Partington will be leading three sessions this month, at 4.00 pm on Mondays at Coln Vicarage: an overview of ..

.. the Bible (Monday 9th)

.. Church History (Monday 16th)

.. the Church of England (Monday 23rd)

Come and join us – and join up the pieces of your mental jigsaw!

All are welcome so please bring your family and friends from children to grandparents.

HARVEST FESTIVAL SERVICE IN HATHEROP CHURCH AND INVITATION:

11.00 AM ON SUNDAY SEPTEMBER 29th

This year the Harvest Festival service will be a joint family-friendly service for the three churches of Coln, Quenington and Hatherop.

As this will be the final church service for John & Liz Partington before they retire to live in Charlbury, it will be followed by a Reception (wine & nibbles) and Presentation (for details ask the churchwardens) in the Lady Chapel in Hatherop church at 12.15 pm approx.

The Churchwardens hope that everyone will feel very welcome to attend both events – but particularly the Reception if they are unable to be at the Harvest service.

ANOTHER GREAT NIGHT OF SWING

July 6th saw an audience of about 300 people gather once again for the annual Swing band Picnic in the grounds of Mill House, Coln St Aldwyns. The weather was kind and, despite a few drops of light rain near the end, the evening was largely dry and warm!

The band excelled themselves this year, and the assembled throng were treated to a range of Glenn Miller, Count Basie and Frank Sinatra songs. Amid the eating and drinking the audience found plenty of time to join in on the dance floor!

The evening raised a considerable sum of money for the Friends of Fairford and Lechlade, which will help to keep the Fairford Community Hospital going during the coming year.

Next year's date is provisionally set for 4th July – no doubt with a Independence Day flavour – so put it in your diary now!!

SOUTHROP COMMUNITY SPEEDWATCH

The last few months have confirmed that most of the drivers coming through our village clearly think that our 20mph speed restriction does not apply to them. After the Air Tattoo on the Sunday afternoon in ¾ hour only, we recorded over 50 vehicles travelling between 30 and 40mph through the village, of which many were Range Rovers. Earlier in the month, during one hour in one afternoon we recorded three vehicles travelling at between 40 and 45mph, the rough equivalent of 135-150mph on a Motorway, which would attract six points on a licence and a fine! FOUND- THE LOST HEROES OF EASTLEACH.

Following the publishing of the Lost heroes of Eastleach story a few months ago, I was put in touch with a Lavender Feltham who is to celebrate her 90th birthday next year and still has a very clear memory of that fateful day. On seeing the crash from a distance the 11yr old Lavender cycled to the crash site which was inside the gateway just before the cottages on the Eastleach farmhouse access road. On arrival she found her brother Albert Russell along with Nobby Clark from one of the cottages, had using an axe chopped into the rear gun turret of the plane and carried the injured Pilot to safety.

Lavender found him propped up against a tree, she claims it's still there and can take me to it!

The five who died were amongst the 5,327 RAF bomber command airmen who were killed in training during the WW2.

This investigation with the help of a number of local people may help to keep the memory of the sacrifice of those brave young men alive.

The full up to date and illustrated report of the accident is on the village web site, please follow the link below.

SOUTHROP C OF E PRIMARY SCHOOL

Together we can fly

At the end of the summer term each of the Southrop pupils took the time to write a letter to their future selves, detailing the highlights of their year. These letters are stored in a treasure box and the seven letters they have accumulated over their time with us are given to the children as they leave the school. It is a lovely time to look back on the successes of this and preceding years. Inevitably the end of the year is also a time of sadness as we said goodbye to our Year 6s, Phoebe and members of staff who are leaving us. We are proud of how our Year 6s have developed into fine young people and wish them all every success in the next stage of their lives.

We are delighted to be welcoming Mrs Katy Dawson and Mrs Sarah Blackburn onto our teaching team from September.

For the third year, we have the great opportunity to work with Elaine Hanson from Southrop, on The Luke Bitmead Literary Award, in memory of her son Luke, who was himself a published author. As a school we encourage the children to support each other to build resilience in their learning and this year's task aligns well with this aim. The children are busy writing stories with the title, "What if I fall?... Oh, but what if you fly?", about a character who has taken the risk to put up their hand and volunteer for something they aren't certain they can achieve. Along the way they will overcome challenges and develop as an individual. The winner will receive a Challenge Cup and Elaine generously provides a number of other prizes of book tokens.

The infants will be exploring the topic “Brave” this term, learning about the Celts, whilst the Juniors will be looking at why the Vikings invaded Britain.

We will be holding our Harvest Celebration in St Peter’s Church on Monday 30th September at 9am and invite any members of the community who can to join us.

FAIRFORD ART SOCIETY

We have had a wonderful summer painting at several local gardens and other venues and we would like to thank all those who kindly allowed us access to their properties.

We return on Sept 5th at 7.30pm Fairford Community Centre Farmor Room for a demonstration by Clive Eastland “Still life in Pastel”. Visitors welcome £4.00 Coffee and raffle New members welcomed.

Get together sessions begin Tuesday Sept 10th. Also Thursdays Sept 19th and 26th 1.30pm in the Heritage Room at the Centre. Visitors welcome. £3.00 per session. Subject matter Holiday Memories or do your own thing.
